

Agri-Vie puts money into east Africa

FARMING † Agri-Vie, a private equity fund investing in food and agribusiness, has announced it has invested more than $10m in two businesses in the east African agribusiness sector: $6,7m in New Forests Company, a forestry and timber products group with operations in Uganda, Tanzania, Rwanda and Mozambique; and $3,5m in africaJuice, whose first operation is in Ethiopia growing yellow passion fruit, mango and papaya. I-Net Bridge

